

CLINICAL TRAINING PACKAGE

THE THEORY OF BLADDER SCANNING

de smit medical
Learning Academy

An online training course that has been developed by a senior Consultant Physiotherapist in pelvic health.

Regularly reviewed and updated in line with current clinical evidence and national guidance.

Generic

Appropriate for all makes of bladder scanner

Easy to navigate

Content is organised into six modules

SCORM compliant

Remote access via Learning Management System

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Access

Via your Learning Management System; this is a SCORM compliant course

Learn

Content is laid out intuitively, with various assessments after each chapter

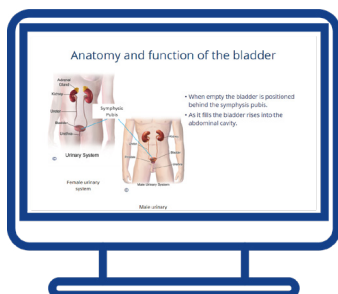

Pay

Per user, subscription is calculated on your usage

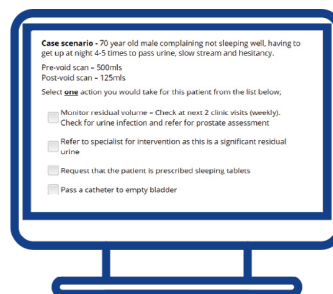

WHAT WILL YOU LEARN?

- ✓ Anatomy and bladder function
- ✓ Causes and symptoms of urinary retention
- ✓ Theory and safety aspects of bladder scanning
- ✓ Interpreting results and professional accountability

HOW IS THE COURSE ASSESSED?

Learning is assessed through a variety of randomised questions with no time limit

Achieve a score of 75% to pass each module, all modules must be passed to receive certification

TESTIMONIALS

'Really valuable to us. I highly recommend others take a look.'

Myra Robson,
Clinical Lead, Lewisham and Greenwich NHS Trust

'A great resource to enhance user and clinical training delivery.'

Stephanie Bastone,
Specialist Continence Nurse & Clinical Lead, Locala (Retired)

COURSE AUTHOR: JULIA HERBERT CONSULTANT PELVIC HEALTH PHYSIOTHERAPIST

This course brings together Julia's many years of teaching experience in delivering clinical training, from undergraduate to Masters level, with her advanced clinical skills in the assessment of bladder dysfunction.

de smit medical

Contact Us

0845 345 4226

www.desmitmedical.com

sales@desmitmedical.com

Terms & conditions apply